Subscribe to the Chronicle Email address Join Us

2017

By Jim Herr - May 31, 2017

A two car crash snarled afternoon traffic on Genesee Street and sent three people to the hospital on May 15, 2017. (Jim Herr/Cheektowaga Chronicle)

CHEEKTOWAGA, N.Y. – Cheektowaga 911 dispatch dealt with 179 incidents on Tuesday, May 30th. Here is just a look at some of the calls first responders were called out to in the town.

12:21 am – A possible sexual assault was reported. Police caught up with the woman walking on Harlem Road. She was taken home and the incidents allegedly happened in Buffalo. The incident was turned over to Buffalo PD, and a police report was filed in Cheektowaga to help out the other agency.

12:34 am – A man says he is locked out of a home on Federal Avenue and a woman would not let him out. When police got there, they found out the two men outside do not live there and were sent on their way. Officers were called back to the house around 7:00 am. The woman wanted the man and all of his stuff out of the house. The guy was in the basement. He didn't want to leave and get out. The woman eventually let the man get all of his stuff.

12:59 am – A call came in reporting shoplifting at NOCO Express on French Road. A man allegedly stole a case of beer. A police report was filed.

Subscribe to the Chronicle Email address Join Us

6:33 am – A school bus broke down on Walden Avenue. No children were on board, and help was on the way when police arrived to check it out.

8:05 am – A notification came in from the NYS sex offender registry. An offender who last listed his address on Audet Drive failed to return his annual address verification form. A police report was filed.

8:56 am – A man called to say he was cut in the face and he was outside on Gulabert Avenue near the church. Police came to fill out a police report on the assault.

10:10 am – Police were called to a house on Hedwig Avenue. A man says his mother-in-law was refusing to leave his house. She was sitting outside in a vehicle. Police advised everyone at the house.

10:12 am – A bad check was passed at Curtiss Auto Repair. A police report was filed.

10:20 am – A call came in from Walden Galleria when a man and woman were spotted screaming at each other outside World of Beer. Officers got in touch with the woman, she said everything was in order and it was just a verbal fight.

10:37 am – Equipment fell off a landscaper's truck near the Union/Losson intersection. It was moved into a parking lot and recovered by the business. True Green came out to clean up fertilizer left in the intersection.

12:25 pm – A call came in about damage at Griffith Park. A car drove through the park overnight. It was checked out. No structures were damaged, there were just tire tracks in the lawn.

12:31 pm – A suspicious vehicle was noticed in the alley behind the Broadway Sports Center. It was a couple "being romantic" in a car. They were advised by police.

12:41 pm – Police were called to help deal with an irate customer at one of the jewelry stores in Walden Galleria. He was upset over a gold chain he bought. A compromise was reached between the store and customer.

Subscribe to the Chronicle Email address Join Us and contact corporate with any issues.

12:52 pm – A call came in from a wife on Gardenvillage Drive. She says she got a text message from her husband with a gun in his mouth telling her to say goodbye to the children. The man has an airgun in the apartment. He was not at home when police got there. He was contacted on the phone, and West Seneca Police were sent to check on the husband in person.

1:18 pm – An employee at the front desk of the Holiday Inn near the airport called because she was having a hard time getting disability paperwork from HR. The woman was told by the responding officer that it's not a police issue. She needs to contact corporate offices and an attorney. The woman was not happy with the officer. She thought they should force the business to turn over paperwork and then give her disability. She was again advised that police do not do that.

2:29 pm – The dog warden was called out to Marne Road. A pitbull was running loose and scaring kids getting off the bus. The warden handled issues with the owner.

3:03 pm – A call came in about shoplifting at Zumiez at Walden Galleria. The suspect was spotted walking on Galleria Drive. She walked through the woods, and then officers picked her up near the area of Nokomis and Seminole. She was taken into custody and the property was located.

3:13 pm – A mother called because her 11-year-old daughter was yelling at her. The daughter's counselor told the mom to call 911. Crisis services said the daughter could remain at home. A police report was filed.

3:53 pm – A car popping was reported on Chardon Drive. The caller said the car was gone through and change was taken.

4:49 pm – Kids keep going in and out of a vacant house garage on Greenleaf lane. They say there are kittens in the garage they keep feeding. The issue was turned over to the building inspector.

6:36 pm – A large turtle was spotted in Union Road near the bridge from Willaim. Police responded to the scene, and animal control took the turtle.

Subscribe to the Chronicle Email address Join Us

out who owned the pup. They saw the owner tie up the dog in the hallway. Police checked out the house. The pup was fine, but the dog warden was notified about the call.

9:19 pm – South Line firefighters were called out to Barbados Drive for reports of a street light on fire. It turns out the light was set on fire due to the bird's next. NYSEG was heading to the scene. The fire was quickly put out.

9:39 pm – A teenage boy was spotted chasing a teenage female down Gary Lane. The caller's husband was now chasing the male because he was afraid he would assault the girl. The husband returned back home, and then the boy's mother started chasing him. It turned out it was a boyfriend and girlfriend having a fight. They were both sent their seperate ways.

10:06 pm – A man was spotted on Clover Place pushing a shopping cart filled with car speakers and tools. The caller lost sight of the man. Police were unable to find the man when they got to the scene.

11:16 pm – A caller on Carefree Lane says their neighbor is refusing to turn off a leaf blower in their shed. When police got to the scene it was shut off. The owner was strongly advised of noise ordinance.