

Subscribe to the Chronicle

Email address

Join UsBy Jim Herr - April 6, 2017*Cheektowaga Police booking photo of Tyrone Ervin.*

CHEEKTOWAGA, N.Y. – A Buffalo man was arrested overnight for DWI after crashing into a gas meter.

It happened just after midnight at 4 Trent Square off Cedargrove Circle.

Cheektowaga Police tells Cheektowaga Chronicle that Tyrone Ervin, 29, of Peach Street in Buffalo, was arrested for DWI, leaving the scene of a property damage accident, operating with no insurance and other vehicle and traffic violations.

Ervin crashed into a gas meter at the apartment building forcing the evacuation of residents and ventilation of the building by the Cleveland Hill Fire Department.

National Fuel had to replace the gas meter.