Several Cheektowaga-area fire companies were at the scene of a two-alarm fire at a residence in the 400 block of Shanley Street in Cheektowaga on Tuesday, as well as a fire at storage facility behind the residence on Cambria Street, near South Ogden Street, Cheektowaga Police confirmed.

The fires started before 5 p.m.

Doyle Hose Company No. 1 was battling the blaze at the Shanley Street residence. Other fire companies at the scene included Sloan Active Hose Company No. 1, the Southline Fire Department, Bellevue Fire Company and the Forks Fire Company.
