

Partner's Pizza woman robbed at gunpoint

By Jim Herr - September 25, 2017

CHEEKTOWAGA – A pizza delivery person was robbed at gunpoint overnight Friday while delivering a pizza to an address near Cedargrove Park.

A woman driver from Partner's Pizza told the Cheektowaga Police that three black males pointed a silver handgun at her head and stole a sheet pizza, wings, and around $50 in cash.

The robbery happened between 12 and 14 Simsbury Drive just after Midnight Friday.

The suspects were said to be in their 20's, or younger, skinny, and one male was cleanly shaven.

The police were not able to immediately locate the suspects.

Chronicle file photo of a Cheektowaga Police car.

