CHEEKTOWAGA – A man knocked over the Game Stop video game store inside the Union Consumer Square just before 9 pm Thursday.

Assistant Chief of Police Jim Speyer says the suspect stole two video game systems and 20 video games. He threatened to shoot the clerks if they resisted the theft but no weapon was displayed.

The suspect is described as a six-foot black man in his mid 20's. He was wearing a dark-colored hoodie and white sneakers with black stripes.

Anyone with information is asked to call the Cheektowaga Police at 716-686-3500.
