

VP Pence poses with local motorcycle officers

By Jim Herr - October 18, 2017

Vice President Mike Pence poses for a picture with the motorcycle officers who escorted his motorcade during his October 17th visit.

CHEEKTOWAGA – Vice President Mike Pence posed for a photo in front of Air Force 2 with the motorcycle officers that escorted his motorcade during his visit on October 17th.

Representing the Cheektowaga Police were; back row far right- Cheektowaga Traffic officer Timothy Sherer and Back row, the third person in from far right- Cheektowaga Traffic officer Scott Scharlau.

Mr. Pence flew into town Tuesday to host a roundtable discussion regarding President Trump's tax plan and to attend a fundraiser for Congressman Chris Collins and the Republican National Congressional Committee.

