

Cheektowaga man arrested in Amherst shooting

By Jim Herr - October 20, 2017

Pine Hill firefighters and neighboring departments work to extinguish a residential structure fire on July 7, 2017. (Jim Herr/Cheektowaga Chronicle)

CHEEKTOWAGA, N.Y. – Amherst Police arrested Raaquim Mccrayer, 25, of Marne Road in connection with a shooting back in January.

The shooting took place on Hartford Road in Amherst.

Mccrayer was picked up at his Cheektowaga home by detectives from Amherst, along with assistance from Cheektowaga Police.

Mccrayer is charged with 1st degree assault and criminal possession of a weapon.

