

Three charged for shoplifting from Pink, running from Cheektowaga Police

By Jim Herr - October 23, 2017

Cheektowaga Police mug shot of Nardisha Brown.

CHEEKTOWAGA – Three people were arrested by Cheektowaga Police after shoplifting from the Pink store and leading police on a foot chase through Walden Galleria’s parking lot late Thursday afternoon.

Two of the subjects are underage. A third, Nardisha Brown, 22, was charged with Grand Larceny in the Third Degree and Resisting Arrest. The value of the merchandise stolen exceeded $3,000. She is jailed at the Erie County Holding Center in lieu of $2,000 bond.

A law enforcement source says after boosting the merchandise, Ms. Brown and her three accomplices backed a car into an undercover Cheektowaga Police officer sparking a foot chase and vehicle chase into the City of Buffalo.

