

CPD travels to Pennsylvania to honor fallen officer

By Jim Herr - November 23, 2017

Officers Timothy Sherer and Garrett Slawatycki from the Motorcycle Unit traveled to New Kensington, a suburb of Pittsburg, to attend the funeral services for New Kensington Police Officer Brian Shaw. (Submitted)

CHEEKTOWAGA – Two Cheektowaga Police Department officers traveled to Pennsylvania Wednesday to pay honor a New Kensington Police Officer killed in the line of duty.

Officers Timothy Sherer and Garrett Slawatycki from the Motorcycle Unit traveled to New Kensington, a suburb of Pittsburg, to attend the funeral services for New Kensington Police Officer Brian Shaw.

Officer Shaw was killed in the line of duty this past Friday. He was shot multiple times while initiating a traffic stop.

He had four months on the force.

