

Cheektowaga Police Blotter: Thanksgiving 2017

By Jim Herr - November 27, 2017

Public safety dispatchers received 112 calls on Thanksgiving. Here some of the calls first responders attended to.

1:54 am – Three men robbed a food delivery person on Cedargrove Circle. The men displayed a gun, took money, and ran away on foot.

2:39 am – A drunk driver was arrested after crashing his car into a field off Wagner Avenue.

3:07 am – Five people were yelling and screaming at patrons inside Tryst Gentlemen's Club. The police were called and security escorted the group out.

3:31 am – An intoxicated women outside Yings on French Road was transported to ECMC by ambulance.

4:31 am – The police attended to a small altercation at Tryst Gentlemen's Club. Everyone was sent on their way. During the fight, a woman claimed that someone stole her purse. She became uncooperative with the police and drove away.

9:19 am – Rescue firefighters ventilated a house on Hedwig after a CO alarm was activated.

10:07 am – Change and a keyfob were stolen from a car on Greenleaf Lane.

11:04 am – Cleveland Hill firefighters attended to a CO alarm on Aurora Drive. They found elevated levels of CO and notified National Fuel.

1:19 pm – U-Crest firefighters responded to a fire alarm on Maryvale Drive. The resident burnt their stuffing.

6:00 pm – The police noted that the parking lot of Wal-Mart was packed while they were performing community policing.

7:24 pm – A self-cleaning over caught fire on Pine Ridge Road. Pine Hill firefighters disconnected the oven and removed it from the house.

9:26 pm – A man was arrested for driving without a license and possession of narcotics after the police were called to check on a man passed out in a vehicle on Parker Street.

11:15 pm – The police could not locate a kid running around a parking ramp at the Walden Galleria with a mask on.