

Cheektowaga Police Blotter: New Year's Day 2018

By Jim Herr - January 4, 2018

A Cheektowaga Police speaks to the robbery suspect at a Buffalo Police traffic stop on Broadway near Deshler Street on July 8, 2017. (Jim Herr/Cheektowaga Chronicle)

CHEEKTOWAGA – First responders started the first day of 2018 by attending to 144 calls throughout the Town.

2:43 am – A 17-year-old was passed out drunk on Pendennis Place and taken to St. Joes by ambulance for treatment.

3:08 am – South Line firefighters spent about an hour at Target on Transit Road. A heat detector went off by the trash compactor. No issue was found, but multiple alarms were going off inside the building. The alarm company and a key holder were notified.

3:22 am – U-Crest firefighters were called to a five-car accident on the westbound I-90, just past Genesee Street. Three people were taken to the hospital by ambulance (two to ECMC, and a 2-year-old child to Children's). Five others signed off on further treatment. The incident was handed over to State Police.

Five car crash on Thruway sends three people to the hospital. (1/1/18 – NYS)

5:00 am – An officer on patrol told two drunk men to not walk Thruway) in the middle of Walden Avenue.

7:42 am – The water authority and highway department were notified about a water main break on Winkler Road.

9:20 am – A police report was filed after someone found jewelry was stolen from their home during a New Year's Eve party.

2:21 pm – A police report was filed after four women walked out without paying their bill at Denny's.

2:30 pm – A car was pulled over and a woman was arrested for drunk driving after leaving Gardenvillage Drive.

4:42 pm – A teenage boy called police because he was upset that his mother turned off the WiFi. He said he wanted to talk to his dad. Everyone was advised.

6:25 pm – One person was arrested for narcotics on Genesee Street.

7:39 pm – A man in the cell block at police headquarters was checked out for possible frostbite.

8:20 pm – A man was taken to ECMC after using heroin and cocaine for four days straight.

10:44 pm – The water authority was notified about a water main break on Curtiss Street.

Quick Statistics:

Snow Ban Enforcement: 1

Walmart shoplifting arrests: 2

Domestic Disputes: 7

Neighbor Disputes: 5

Mental Health Interactions: 1

Property Damage Crashes: 7

Broken Down Motorists: 6

Arrest Warrants Served: 1