CHEEKTOWAGA – A Buffalo man was arrested by Cheektowaga Police Monday afternoon after stealing an estimated $40 worth of Red Bull from a Tops Friendly Markets.

Assistant Chief of Police Jim Speyer says Jerome Young Jr., 36, of Main Street Buffalo, stole 22 cans of Red Bull from Tops Friendly Markets at 3865 Union Road around 12:38 pm.

A backpack was used to conceal the items for easy transport as he bolted out of the store and through the parking lot.

He ran north on Union Road and the police caught up to him around Evergreen and Clover Place. A short foot chase ensued before officers brought Mr. Young under arrest in front of 4020 Union Road.

He was charged with robbery, resisting arrest, possession of burglary tools, and petit larceny.
