

Man tasered while fighting with Cheektowaga Police officers

By Jim Herr - March 5, 2018

Brendan Ace sits in the back of a Cheektowaga Police on March 3rd. (Jim Herr/Cheektowaga Chronicle)

CHEEKTOWAGA – Cheektowaga Police officers had to taser a man over the weekend after he fought with officers as they were trying to arrest him.

Brendan Ace, 28, of Randolph Avenue, was charged with Resisting Arrest and Aggravated Unlicensed Operation according to Assistant Chief of Police Jim Speyer.

Mr. Ace fought with officers and was tased at least twice while they were trying to bring the man under arrest for driving a vehicle without a license near Euclid Avenue and Doat Street Saturday afternoon.

He also had an outstanding Cheektowaga arrest warrant.