

Cheektowaga Police Blotter: Monday, March 26, 2018

By Jim Herr - March 28, 2018

Cheektowaga first responders were called out to 162 incidents on Monday.

12:41 am – The police transported a man to the city line after he was begging for money in the parking lot of Sunoco at Harlem Road and Genesee Street.

12:51 am – One person was arrested on Rehm Road after the police responded to a home after a grandchild woke up grandma saying that mom was shooting heroin in the basement.

1:47 am – The police arrested a man on Lucerne Court after he reportedly beat up his ex-girlfriend. An ambulance treated one person and transported them to the hospital.

8:12 am – Pistol permit investigations were conducted for residents on Huxley Drive, Transit Road,

9:34 am – The police tried to enforce a violation of an order of protection

1:01 pm – An employee of the Delta Sonic complex at 2285 Walden Avenue called the police after she had her purse stolen from the employee area. The police determined that two different purchases were made at the Walmart on Walden Avenue totaling $976.91. Another purchase was made at the Sunoco gas station at 2700 Union Road.

3:30 pm – A woman told the police that her daughter was raped by a male she met off of the Tinder dating app.

5:20 pm – A semi-truck driver was issued a ticket for driving down a non-truck route after he got stuck on Stradtman Street while trying to turn around.

5:25 pm – Management at Lunetta's Restaurant called the police saying a customer has been harassing them over the phone. The customer was calling employees names because they put a piece of bacon on a sub sandwich.

5:57 pm – A police officer was flagged down by a resident on Kennedy Road and Gregory Court about getting rid of prescription meds and syringes. Both parties were assisted.

6:24 pm – The police investigated a threat on SnapChat saying someone was going to shoot up up JFK. A weapon was removed from a home during the investigation for safe keeping.

7:42 pm – A 30-year-old man overdosed on Reiman Street. His family administered Narcan twice and revived him. He was transported to ECMC.

8:51 pm – The police asked a group of teens to leave Orchard Park because they were playing after dusk and the park was closed.

9:40 pm – South Line firefighters found elevated levels of CO in a home on Dewberry Lane. National Fuel responded to the scene. No one required medical treatment.

10:02 pm – A car was reported missing at a Barbara Place address. Area law enforcement agencies were notified to look for the missing Nissan.

10:09 pm – A police report was filed after a Strasbourg Drive resident called police saying a known person stole his TV and friend's tools.

Quick Statistics:

Shoplifting at Walmart arrests: 0

Shoplifting at Galleria arrests: 0

Marijuana Possession arrests: 0

Driving without a valid license or registration arrests: 1

Mental Health Interactions: 0

Domestic Disputes: 3

Neighbor Disputes: 2

Property Damage Crashes: 7

Warrants Served: 6

