First responders were called out to 145 incidents on Tuesday. The following is a look at some of the calls that came in to dispatchers.

1:47 am – A man was arrested for criminal contempt after someone called police wanting them out of their home. A domestic incident report was filed.

3:26 am – One arrest was made at Shady Acres after a person was heard screaming for help. A domestic incident report was filed. Officers returned later in the morning after a family member called police concerned about an infant living in the house with no heat. The mother told officers she was going to stay with a friend.

3:45 am – A guy called police saying he left his keys outside so his friend could get in, but the friend took his Jeep instead. A half-hour later the caller tracked down the Jeep in the city. A police report was filed and the owner got his vehicle back.

6:01 am – A mother called police upset that her 8-year-old and 15-year-old were missing. The kids were tracked down 10 minutes later at their grandma's house.

7:18 am – A caller reported their unlocked vehicle on Rossler Avenue was gone through and items were stolen overnight.

9:43 am – Police were called to check on an elderly man on Dick Road, pushing a walker, with his pants around his ankles. He was checked out and sent on his way.

10:29 am – A police report on Dellwood Place was filed after someone said their house was ransacked and several designer goods were stolen.

11:04 am – A police report was filed after someone allegedly had another driver point a handgun at them in a road rage incident on Cayuga Road.

11:25 am – Officers were called to help free a deer that was stuck inside a power substation on William Street. The deer eventually freed itself from the area.

2:37 pm – Police responded to a property on Campbell Boulevard for a landlord/tenant dispute. A landlord said a tenant who was being evicted was taking doors off of the property. Everyone was advised.

3:46 pm – Doyle firefighters quickly put out a vehicle fire on Alaska Street.

4:16 pm – A police report was filed after change was taken from an unlocked vehicle on Rossler Avenue.

5:49 pm – A police report was filed after a woman dropped a cell phone on French Road. Another woman picked it up and then took off in a vehicle that pulled into Gardenvillage Drive. The incident was caught on camera and other people in the shop said they know the suspect.

6:21 pm – A police report was filed after a woman's purse was stolen out of her cart at Walmart.

11:23 pm – A person was arrested for disorderly conduct after police were called to the scene when a cabbie was stiffed on a fare.
