

Cheektowaga Police Blotter: Tuesday, May 8, 2018

By Jim Herr - May 10, 2018

First responders were called out to 169 incidents in the town on Tuesday.

12:03 am – The police stopped a garbage picker in a blue Dodge Dakota on Wyndmoor Court.

12:24 am – An unknown aged man on Pleasant Parkway overdosed on Heroin. He was transported to St. Joe's Hospital.

3:25 am – A woman was arrested on Alpine Place for trying to stab her husband. She was charged with menacing.

8:48 am – A customer of the Genesee Street Family Dollar store was upset that the store wouldn't take back an item he bought. The 30-year-old man knocked over a display damaging store products. He was located outside the store at the bus stop and was arrested.

9:49 am – A resident of Steven Drive lost $1,820 through an internet scam. The man rented a townhome in Punta Gorda through an ad on Craigslist. The home doesn't exist.

12:48 pm – A Cromwell Drive resident told the police that her mother paid for a lawn care service in the fall and the company never showed up in the spring. The phone is disconnected, and the business storefront is vacant.

2:17 pm – The police arrested a person on Pleasant Parkway for government obstruction after the fire inspector checked a home for squatters.

2:29 pm – U-Crest firefighters extinguished a mulch fire next to the Starbucks on Genesee Street.

3:05 pm – A customer at the S. Rossler Save-a-Lot store tried to pay with a counterfeit $20 bill.

5:45 pm – A woman overdosed inside the bathroom at the Noco Express at 1199 French Road. Two doses of Narcan were administered. It was unclear if the patient was transported to the hospital.

5:50 pm – A fire alarm at Walden Galleria forced the evacuation of moviegoers at Regal Cinemas. The alarm company quickly canceled the alarm before firefighters were dispatched. A customer of Regal Cinemas tells Cheektowaga Chronicle they were not allowed back into the theaters. They were given a free ticket to come back.

6:24 pm – A senior man inside Nob Hill Park was told to leave the park after a 911 caller told public safety dispatchers that he was yelling racist things and calling people fat.

6:33 pm – A woman was arrested for larceny after she stole several baby products from the Rite Aid at Genesee and Harlem.

6:48 pm – The dog warden kicked a woman out of Stiglmeier Park because of the no dog policy. She felt she didn't have to leave the park with her dog.

8:34 pm – A stolen vehicle from Ashtabula, Ohio was recovered on Union Road.

9:47 pm – Two traffic summons were issued on McNaughton Avenue.

10:26 pm – Five pieces of construction equipment was repossessed from a business on Old Indian Road.
