By Jim Herr - May 27, 2018

Cheektowaga first responders were called to 220 incidents on Thursday, May 24, 2018.

12:16 am – A passing patrolman checked on a suspicious man with a vehicle at Sky Harbor. The man was loading topsoil into his car. Turns out the pile of topsoil is free to any Sky Harbor resident.

2:36 am – A drunk driver was arrested at the site of a traffic stop on Harlem Road.

4:16 am – A man was arrested on Gardenvale Drive after he kicked and choked a woman.

6:15 am – A JetBlue flight bound for Boston returned to Buffalo after encountering a bird strike 10-minutes after taking off. The plane, with 60 people onboard, landed safely.

6:19 am – U-Crest firefighters checked on a gas leak at Walmart.

6:22 am – Firefighters gathered on Matthew Lane to fight a fire inside a duplex.

8:17 am – A Haley Lane resident reported that a health care aide stole several personal items.

9:02 am – A lockdown drill was conducted at Woodrow Wilson Elementary School.

11:48 am – A confused adult on Anna Marie Terrace told police she thought an unknown man was living under her trailer and that the man is putting things into her food to make it taste bitter. An officer determined that she didn't meet criteria to be transported to ECMC under the state's mental health law, but a referral was made to the proper social services agencies to get her some help.

12:38 pm – The police advised the guardians of two 6-year-old boys on Carefree Lane after a neighbor called the police to say they were walking around the neighborhood naked.

1:30 pm – A lavender Lane resident reported that their bank account was compromised.

2:38 pm – A Westvale Court resident came to the police department's front desk to file a larceny report. An unknown person was taken money from her account.

3:55 pm – A resident on E. Melcourt Drive was draining a pool. The water flooded the basement and backyard of a home on W. Melcourt Drive. The pool owner remedied the issue.

4:27 pm – A patrol officer drove down Anna Marie Terrace neighborhood on routine patrol. The officer honked and waived to more than 25 residents.

4:32 pm – A wallet was stolen and a tire slashed from a car at a business on Aero Drive.

5:55 pm – An intoxicated man urinated on the front porch of a Haller Avenue residence. The police took the man to an address on Gold Street.

5:56 pm – The police assured a resident near Wrazen Park that patrol officers will check on the park for unruly kids that were cursing.

8:52 pm -One person was arrested for harassment and resisting arrest after a patrol officer was flagged down on French Road to investigate a domestic incident.

9:38 pm – Forks firefighters and the police attended to an overdose inside Mighty Taco on Walden Avenue. The 30-year-old was revived by Narcan and was transported to St. Joes for further treatment.
