CHEEKTOWAGA – Cheektowaga Police Officer Timothy Sherer was honored at the 27th annual STOP-DWI awards luncheon Wednesday.

The department announced Thursday that Officer Sherer was honored with the Trooper Kevin P. Dobson Memorial Award.

“Officer Sherer dedicated his 28-year career to DWI Enforcement,” Assistant Chief of Police Jim Speyer said. “During his tenure, Officer Sherer has made well over 1,200 DWI arrests.”

The event recognizes and presents awards to officers from each of Erie County’s 21 police agencies, including the Erie County Sheriff’s Office, SUNY Public Safety Departments, and two Divisions of the New York State Police, as well as the Erie County Probation Department.
