

Cheektowaga Police Blotter: Monday, June 5, 2018

By Jim Herr - June 5, 2018

First responders attended to 268 complaints on Monday, June 5, 2018.

12:17 am – A male prisoner was transported to ECMC after complaining of tightness in his chest.

6:42 am – A police report for possible prostitution was filed at a town hotel. A 911 call was received after staff said they heard someone screaming for help from a room that was supposed to be empty. One person was arrested on a Buffalo warrant.

7:31 am – The police arrested a man on Alpine Place for violating an order of protection.

8:13 am – A Cleveland Hill student was arrested on assault charges after a fight with another student.

8:58 am – A truck took down a few wires at Airport Plaza. The wires did not appear to be part of a utility and no store lost service.

10:17 am – A Williamstowne resident told police a phone, money order, and glasses were missing; believes a family member took them.

10:22 am – A domestic incident report was filed on Peachtree Road following a disturbance between two people. The police said a person drove on a sidewalk and lawn trying to “get at” a woman. Minutes later, the two were spraying lighter fluid on each other.

10:42 am – A lockdown drill was conducted at Theodore Roosevelt School.

11:38 am – The police rushed to the area of the 1100 block of French Road after a 911 call said a man was dressed all in black and was carrying a gun. The man was located quickly. It was an umbrella.

11:53 am – The police attended to an ongoing neighbor dispute on Barbara Place. The upper tenant made threats to harm the lower’s daughter. The issue was over a washer machine.

1:22 pm – A natural death was reported on the 700 block of Dick Road.

1:36 pm – A room was burglarized inside a hotel on Walden Avenue.

2:14 pm – A woman and her children asked the police for help to escape the abuse of her husband. She was assisted and was driven to an undisclosed address.

2:24 pm – The police arrested one woman on Marie Avenue after a fight with another woman.

2:46 pm – A 28-year-old man suffered an overdose on the 4000 block of Union Road. The patient was transported to St. Joes.

2:52 pm – Forks firefighters extinguished a mulch fire near a bus stop on Walden Galleria property.

3:16 pm – A Huth Road resident called the police to say his e-cigarette was stolen by a known person. Amherst Police was called to check on the suspect's address. The call was canceled at 4:02 pm when the suspect returned the property.

3:36 pm – A man with dementia wandered away from his wife at the Tops Markets at Harlem and Kensington. Several locations were checked with the help of Amherst Police. The man was found at his home 20-minutes later.

4:46 pm – Cheektowaga Chronicle filed a police report for harassment after a handful of obscene voicemails were received and a number of concerning Facebook comments were posted; including stalking-like posts that indicated the location of future social events the publisher may attend, the home address of the publisher, and other potential threats of harm and violence.

5:02 pm – A patrol officer witnessed a man walk into a wooded area on Harlem Road. He told the officer took a pee. The man was advised and he got onto a metro bus.

5:48 pm – A caller told police a group of teenagers was smoking weed on the playground at Alexander Community Center. The group was searched and no marijuana was found. They were ejected from the park.

7:08 pm – A Halstead Avenue couple was found looking for their dog on the railroad tracks along Broadway. A quick investigation found that the dog control officer picked up the pup earlier and dropped it off at the SPCA.

8:16 pm – An elementary school student at Cheektowaga Central reports he was pushed by another student and the teacher didn't notify the parents. The school liaison officer will follow up on the case.

10:08 pm – The staff at Oliver Garden called 911 to say their fire alarm has been going off for the past half-hour and firefighters never showed up. Forks firefighters determined a power outage tripped the alarm. There was no phone line connected to the alarm, so the alarm company was never alerted to the incident.

10:10 pm – A man walking southbound on Union Road dressed in camouflage appeared to have a rifle slung over his shoulder. The police determined he was holding an umbrella. It was not noted if this was the same person from this morning.

10:32 pm – A patrol officer counseled a 13-year-old Slate Creek Drive girl after dad caught her smoking weed.

11:50 pm – A Wildy Avenue resident reported that his debit card was being used by someone else.
