

Cheektowaga Police Blotter: Wednesday, June 20, 2018

By Jim Herr - June 21, 2018

First responders attended to 205 complaints on Wednesday.

12:45 am – Two people sleeping in a car at Nob Hill Park were told to move on by a police officer.

2:09 am – A patrol officer checked on a suspicious person in a vehicle at the Thruway Plaza. The officer noted that the driver was a Pokemon player taking a break.

4:46 am – South Line firefighters ventilated a house on Steven Drive after natural gas leaked into the home.

6:25 am – A woman on the 1200 block of George Urban Boulevard told the police that her grandson snuck his friends into her home and she wants them all gone. The police ejected all the kids and told them not to come back.

9:49 am – A grand larceny investigation was started for a Reo Avenue resident after a large check was cashed without their authorization.

10:06 am – The police checked on a man going through recyclables on Cathedral Lane. He was advised and sent on his way.

11:18 am – A senior citizen drove into a ditch on Cayuga Creek. The driver wasn't hurt but needed a tow truck to winch out her 2016 Chevrolet Cruze.

11:20 am – An ambulance was called to Woodrow Wilson Elementary School for a sick student. The student was transported to Children's Hospital.

11:28 am – A resident of Vern Lane told the police that her tire was slashed by the people living with her.

1:22 pm – Monro Muffler Brake & Service on Transit Road reported that the DMV told them 140 inspection stickers were delivered to them but they never received them. A police report for larceny was reported.

1:30 pm – South Line firefighters were on Colette Avenue to attend to a gas leak. Firefighters found the leak at the fireplace.

2:34 pm – A fake $100 bill was reportedly used at Kwik Fill on Broadway.

3:23 pm – One person was transported to ECMC from an injury accident on Union Road.

4:10 pm – A custodian at Woodrow Wilson Elementary said he received a call from another person telling him a couple was “getting too amorous on the basketball court.” A patrol officer was not able to find the couple.

4:26 pm – A 15-year-old was arrested on Walden Avenue after he tore up the house.

4:41 pm – A very intoxicated woman on Union Road was driven to a Williamstowne apartment after she stumbled across the street.

6:41 pm – Five people were arrested at a traffic stop on Harlem Road for narcotics possession.

7:30 pm – An ambulance transported a woman to St. Joes after she got bleach in her eyes at Walmart.

8:17 pm – A resident of Euclid Avenue called the police after his rear neighbor was spraying water from a sprinkler into his yard.

9:43 pm – A resident of Aurora Drive sent someone $900 after they said his grandson was in a car accident.

10:11 pm – A group of kids threw something through a Gualbert Avenue window and broke it.

10:44 pm – A 27-year-old man fell and suffered a head injury at the Walden Avenue Target store. The man was transported to St. Joes.

Quick Statistics:

Property Damage Crashes: 7

Warrants Served: 3

Narcotics Possession arrests: 5

Driving without a valid license or registration arrests: 1

Mental Health Interactions: 1

Domestic Disputes: 3

Neighbor Disputes: 2