

Man steals running vehicle from Sloan gas station

By Jim Herr - August 13, 2018

Mug shot of Ryan Nelson. (CPD)

SLOAN – A Buffalo man was arrested Saturday night after he stole a vehicle from a gas station in the Village of Sloan.

Cheektowaga Police say 22-year-old Ryan Nelson, of East Tupper Street in Buffalo, was charged with felony Grand Larceny.

The victim stopped at the Sunoco gas station at 2323 Broadway around 9:54 pm and left his vehicle running while he went inside the store. When he returned to his car he saw Mr. Nelson was driving away in it.

The vehicle was located a short time later on Kennedy Road and Mr. Nelson was arrested.

He faces a charge of driving without a valid license in addition to the felony. He returns to Cheektowaga Justice Court for a preliminary hearing on September 6th.

Copyright 2018 Crabapple Media, LLC. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten, or redistributed without prior permission.

Send a News Tip to Cheektowaga Chronicle

Subscribe to our mailing list below and read the latest news from Cheektowaga Chronicle in your email every morning at 9 am.

* indicates required
Email Address *

First Name

Last Name

Subscribe

