First responders were called out to 191 incidents across Town on Tuesday.

2:12 am – Someone on Patrick Lane said a girl came to their door. The girl told them she ran away. She goes to Maryvale Middle School. She was talking with the resident on the porch. An officer came and picked up the girl and brought her home. A police report was filed.

3:35 am – A man called from Crabapple's. He said he got thrown out of the bar and said there was a man there talking about how he had a gun. The caller was "barely able to speak". The officer who arrived heard from the bouncer that the caller was thrown out because he was causing trouble. There was no security threat in the bar.

3:42 am – A police report was filed for a burglary after an alarm went off at Monro Muffler on Harlem at Walden.

4:23 am – The clerk at the NOCO Express on Transit Road called 911 to claim a woman customer said she was going to run him over with a car because he didn't have the coffee ready for customers yet. He was advised by an officer at the scene.

10:46 am – A juvenile was arrested for shoplifting from Rainbow on Union Road.

12:26 pm – Southline firefighters had to gain entry into apartments on Strasbourg Drive after alarms were heard going off inside. There were no signs of smoke or fire.

12:37 pm – Two people were taken to local hospitals after a crash between a car and a DHL van on Innsbruck Drive.

2:04 pm – A woman was arrested for shoplifting at the Save-a-Lot on South Rossler.

2:55 pm – A police report was filed for a backpack that was stolen from a car on Genesee Street early in the morning.

2:58 pm – Two people were taken to local hospitals by ambulance after a Jeep crashed into a telephone pole by the 7-Eleven on Walden Avenue.

3:48 pm – A police report was filed after officers responded to a fight between neighbors on Hoerner Avenue. It started after one neighbor asked another to move a vehicle. Then they started screaming at another that one was racist – before it turned physical. Everyone was eventually separated.

5:28 pm – A woman was arrested for shoplifting from Family Dollar on Genesee Street.

6:14 pm – A woman was taken to ECMC after she fell in the gym at the Villa Maria Convent.

8:05 pm – Cleveland Hill firefighters were called to check out CO readings at a house on Mt. Vernon Road. There were elevated levels found. National Fuel was called to the scene to deal with the issue.

10:09 pm – A noise complaint was called in about an address on East Delavan Avenue. A man was doing construction on the building. He was wrapping it up for the night.
