CHEEKTOWAGA, N.Y. (WIVB) - A 41-year-old man drove into the dining room of a Shanley Street pizzeria Wednesday evening after suffering a medical emergency, Cheektowaga Police said Wednesday.

Asst. Chief Mike Sliwinski said that the man had been headed westbound on Shanley when the incident occurred. He said that when crews arrived on scene the man was unconscious with no pulse.

The man was taken to ECMC.

There was no word on his condition as of Wednesday night.

Police didn't have information as of Wednesday night whether there were any injuries to people inside of the restaurant.
