CHEEKTOWAGA – A Buffalo man went into cardiac arrest moments after crashing his Dodge Durango into Partner's Pizzeria on Shanley Street Wednesday evening.

The crash happened around 7:45 pm. First responders from Doyle Hose Company and American Medical Response performed CPR on the man for nearly twenty minutes before he was revived.

He was transported to Erie County Medical Center for further treatment according to an AMR supervisor.

A police source tells Cheektowaga Chronicle that the department's traffic officers are documenting the scene and are trying to determine if the crash was medical related or if it was the result of some other cause.
