

Cheektowaga Police Blotter: Wednesday, November 7, 2018

By Jim Herr - November 18, 2018

First responders in Cheektowaga went out to 195 calls on Wednesday.

12:25 am – A dog was taken to the kennel after the stray was dropped off at police headquarters by someone who found it on Colby Street.

1:37 am – An officer on patrol noticed a window was broken out on Gruner Road. It seems a board that was rotted off fell in the wind – but no one got inside the building.

6:38 am – A car break-in was reported on Gregory Court.

10:40 am – A police report was filed after a catalytic converter was reported stolen from a vehicle on Union Road.

10:47 am – Police were called to Ridge Park Avenue for a Landlord/Tenant dispute. The landlord said the tenant was urinating all over the rugs in the upper apartment. They were advised that it's a civil eviction process.

11:34 am – Roofers on Bert Road were advised by officers to clean up on the job site. Someone called 911 to complain that the crew was letting debris fly all over the property and neighborhood.

4:13 pm – A police report was filed for burglary after a woman on Miami Parkway said she came home to find it looks like her house was gone through and garbage was thrown all over the floor while she was away.

4:26 pm – An employee took two tallboys from 7-Eleven on Union Road and took off from the store. His vehicle was described by the caller and he was tracked down and taken into custody by police. The store said it would prosecute the employee for shoplifting the two beers.

6:19 pm – The librarian wanted a group of rowdy kids to be removed from outside the library on Harlem Road. They were refusing to leave, playing loud music, and charging their phones right outside the library. They were advised that libraries are quiet places and sent on their way.
