

Cheektowaga Police Blotter: Wednesday, November 8, 2018

By Jim Herr - November 18, 2018

First responders were called out to 186 incidents on Wednesday.

12:18 am – A person was spotted pushing a snowblower on Gates Street by an officer on patrol. The owner was contacted. The person was allowed to have the snowblower.

2:28 am – A person was pinned between a dock and tractor-trailer at a business on Broadway. They were taken to ECMC by ambulance. Forks firefighters were also called to the scene. A police report was filed in the incident.

6:41 am – Locks were reported to be cut off of two trailers on Harlem Road overnight. A police report was filed on the break-in.

5:02 pm – A police report was filed after a woman on Atlantic Avenue said she hired a third party provider to install her cable. She then left them unattended in her home, and they then drained her bank account.

5:39 pm – A generator was reported stolen from the back of a truck on Dingens Street.

7:26 pm – A resident at Gardenvillage Drive flagged down an officer on patrol. They complained about kids running through the hallways, smoking pot in the basement, and generally “being disorderly”. Everything was calm when the building was checked out.

11:13 pm – A drunk driver was arrested on Walden Avenue. They were also charged with driving without a license and unlawful possession of marijuana. (Chronicle Life Hack: Don't commit crimes; definitely don't commit multiple crimes at the same time.)
