

Cheektowaga Police Blotter: Thursday, November 9, 2018

By Jim Herr - November 20, 2018

First responders were called out to 188 incidents on Thursday.

1:44 am – Three people inside a 2006 Buick were arrested after a brief chase down Union Road. Charges included Aggravated Unlicensed Operation and Marijuana possession. Arrests were also made for outstanding warrants from Amherst and Buffalo.

6:59 am – A 16-year-old male on Slate Creek Drive was refusing to go to school. The police responded, advised the parties, and took the child to school.

8:23 am – Walden Galleria Security called the police to report that multiple sewer covers were stolen.

8:41 am – A Pendlewood Drive father called the police to report that his son used his credit for more items than he originally allowed. Dad said he gave permission for his son to charge one trip through a rideshare company, but he used it for three instead raking up $36.00 in charges. A civil compromise between dad and son was reached. The card was canceled and a new number was assigned.

11:10 am – A hit-and-run driver was arrested after crashing into another car on Cleveland Drive.

12:39 pm – A Kindle Fire was reported stolen on Rossler Avenue. It happened a few weeks ago.

1:32 pm – A man was transported to ECMC under the state's mental health law after he was found inside a Genesee Street hotel unconscious with blood all over the bed sheets.

2:32 pm – Two people were arrested shortly after they stole a shopping cart of tools from Home Depot.

2:40 pm – A store inside the plaza at 5100 Genesee Street reported that three males stole over $1,000 in merchandise.

4:12 pm – The school resource officer for JFK is investigating threats made by a student to shoot up a house. The threats were made both in and out of school.

7:54 pm – The police arrested a man at a traffic stop on Preston Road after he gave officers a fake name.
