CHEEKTOWAGA, N.Y. (WIVB) - Chick-Fil-A on Walden Avenue is opening at 6 a.m. Thursday, and Cheektowaga Police have a plan in place for traffic.

Officers and signage will be posted around the area to divert drive-thru traffic to Peppy Place, west of the restaurant.

A 12' inflatable cow at the corner of Walden Avenue and Peppy Place will help motorists get to Peppy Place.

Cones and signage will create a center lane for Chick-Fil-A drive-thru overflow, down Anderson Road and Dale Road.

Handicapped parking and dine-in customers will be able to enter at the light at the intersection for McDonalds and Target plazas. Additional parking will be available at several nearby stores and hotels, including the Hampton Inn, Residence Inn (10 a.m. to 5 p.m.), First Group (45 Anderson Road) after 5 p.m., Upstate Niagara (25 Anderson Road) after 6 p.m.

Officers will be in place at intersections along Walden Avenue.
