CHEEKTOWAGA, N.Y. (WKBW) — Cheektowaga police say 31-year-old Maurice Scott of Buffalo has been arrested in connection to a road rage incident that happened on Wednesday afternoon on Walden Avenue in Cheektowaga.

Police say Rudy was hit 20 to 30 times after the suspect cut him off near the Chick-fil-A and slammed on his brakes. Rudy, a father of four, was taken to the hospital, where he was treated for several injuries. He has since been released from the hospital.

Scott was arrested on a second-degree assault charge, a D felony. He was arraigned Saturday morning in Cheektowaga Town Court and transferred to the Erie County Holding Center.

The sheriff's office told 7 Eyewitness News that Scott was released on $20,000 bond on Saturday the 22nd.

According to the police report, witnesses say Rudy was in the left lane eastbound on Walden Avenue near Anderson Road when Scott inched his way in front of Rudy and then came to an abrupt stop.

A witness says when Scott's vehicle came to an abrupt stop, he then exited the vehicle and Rudy was standing on the running board of his vehicle.

In the report, witnesses say Scott then grabbed Rudy around the chest area and violently slammed him head-first into the median and repeatedly punched his face and head.
