

Cheektowaga Police Blotter: Monday, January 14, 2019

By Jim Herr - January 16, 2019

First responders were called to 161 calls for service on Monday.

1:02 am – A 17-year-old male from Kuwait was trying to check-in to the Millennium Hotel. Officers arrived, and the man later took a rideshare to the airport.

1:35 am – A rape was reported on Caprice Drive. Detectives responded to the scene.

8:44 am – Change was stolen from an unlocked vehicle on Reiman Street.

9:00 am – A stolen vehicle from Buffalo was recovered after the police investigated a parking complaint at Edgebrook Estates.

11:55 am – A Tammy Lane resident said her pediatrician called saying someone was impersonating her and was trying to get her child's medical records. She told the police that she thought it was her ex-boyfriend's new girlfriend. An investigation determined that there was no cause to the identity theft complaint.

12:15 pm – A home on Hoerner Avenue was ransacked, and several items were missing. A police report for burglary was filed.

1:01 pm – The police assistant the administration at Erie 1 Boces Harkness Career & Technical Center on Aero Drive to suspend a student. One juvenile was later arrested for violating an offense against public order.

1:49 pm – Hockey equipment from Holiday Twin Rinks was borrowed and never returned. The subject's contact number was disconnected. A larceny report was filed.

3:20 pm – Sunglasses and a hunting knife were stolen from a Boll Street vehicle.

3:29 pm – Over $2,000 worth of tools were stolen from a vehicle on Shanley Street.

4:37 pm – A man was arrested on Meadowbrook Parkway for criminal mischief after breaking the glass on his neighbor's front door. An ambulance later came to police headquarters to transport the man to ECMC under the mental health law.

5:34 pm – A suspicious occurrence police report was filed after an unconscious 20-year-old woman was found lying in Genesee Street near the Airport Bowling Center. She was transported to ECMC.

6:07 pm – A known person stole a TV and wedding rings from a house on Zent Court. A domestic incident report was filed.

6:31 pm – The police provided community policing at a meeting of the Democratic Committee meeting on South Rossler Avenue. The assignment was completed at 8:36 pm.

8:50 pm – The police investigated an unattended death on Reo Avenue. Emergency responders were summoned to the address to investigate a possible diabetic issue.

11:09 pm – A man on Walden Avenue voluntarily checked himself into ECMC for a mental evaluation after his downstairs neighbor called the police. The neighbor said the man's water has been running and leaking through the ceiling, which later collapsed. The man told the police that he was washing his clothes in the shower.

Quick Statistics:

Property damage crashes: 2

Warrants served: 5

DMV violation arrests: 1

Narcotics arrests: 0

Marijuana arrests: 0

Walmart shoplifting arrests: 1

Galleria shoplifting arrests: 1

Mental health interactions: 3

Domestic incidents: 2

Copyright 2019 Crabapple Media, LLC. All rights reserved. This material may not be published, broadcast, rewritten, or redistributed without prior permission.

— Click here to send a News Tip to Cheektowaga Chronicle

— Scammed, ripped off, or need help with an issue with the government? Let us know and Chronicle Connects will try to help bring a resolution to your issue.

— Subscribe to our mailing list below and read the latest news from Cheektowaga Chronicle in your email every morning at 9 am.

* indicates required

Email Address *

First Name

Last Name

Subscribe

