

Cheektowaga Police Blotter: Tuesday, January 15, 2019

By Jim Herr - January 16, 2019

First responders were called to 140 calls for service on Tuesday.

7:09 am – A school bus collided with a car on Barone Circle. Three kids were on the bus, but they were not hurt.

7:45 am – A vehicle collided with a marked Erie County Sheriff's Office patrol car on Union Road. There were no injuries. CPD checked on the crash and deferred to the sheriff's office accident investigation unit to clear up all the paperwork.

9:31 am – A resident of Hoerner Avenue died of natural causes overnight.

11:40 am – A subject threw an air pressure pump at another person at the Noco Express on Genesee Street. The pump hit the complainant's car window causing a crack. The subject was not located.

11:52 am – A vehicle was gone through on Danbury Drive.

2:29 pm – The police attended to an ongoing neighbor dispute on Hoerner Avenue.

2:57 pm – One person was arrested for child endangerment after they left a baby in a vehicle at the Sam's Club Plaza.

3:20 pm – A business on Aero Drive reported that someone stole their business checks and spent around $7,000. A patrol officer responded but the business was locked up, and nobody came to the door.

4:34 pm – A stolen vehicle was recovered on Trent Square.

8:14 pm – A 31-year-old man overdosed substance at a home on Calderwood Drive. The victim was transported to ECMC.

9:24 am – A Hedwig Avenue resident called the police to say he didn't want his dog any longer and if the police didn't pick it up he would let it run loose in the streets. An officer took custody of the pup and checked him into the town's dog kennel for the night.
