CHEEKTOWAGA, N.Y. (WKBW) — A fugitive from Ohio is in the custody of New York State Police after a traffic stop on the Thruway in Cheektowaga.

According to state police, on Sunday evening, officers received information to be on the lookout for a white Chrysler minivan with Ohio plates driven by a man accused of kidnapping five children and their mother from the Cleveland area.

New York State Police say they observed a vehicle matching the description on I-90 near the Cleveland Drive exit and pulled the vehicle over. The driver, 27-year-old William Angel, was detained and taken to th

Angel was taken to the Erie County Holding Center to await extradition to Ohio.

According to police, several members of the NYSP purchased diapers, food, clothing and toys for the children.

The mother of the children was treated for minor injuries. Emergency medical personnel also assisted in caring for the children.

Police say a relative from Ohio traveled to Buffalo to pick up the mother and her children.
