Police say the vehicle was stopped Tuesday at the Cleveland State exit, in the town of Cheektowaga. The male driver, William M. Angel, 27, of Cleveland, OH, was taken into custody.

Investigators say Angel was wanted by Cleveland Police on six counts of kidnapping, two counts of felony assault, and five counts of endangering the welfare of a child.

When stopped police say they found 5 children, ranging from ages 6 months to seven years old and their mother. Troopers say the children were without diapers, food, or extra clothing.

The mother was treated for injuries she sustained in the initial kidnapping in Ohio.

Angel was processed and is awaiting extradition to Ohio.
