A 21-year-old Buffalo woman was killed Tuesday night after the car she was a passenger in ran a red light and collided with another vehicle in Cheektowaga, according to the Cheektowaga Police Department.

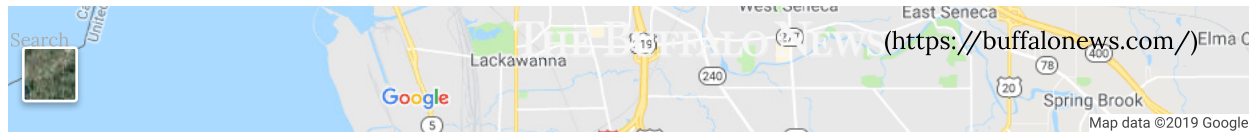

Police said that the collision occurred at 8:10 p.m. Tuesday at the intersection of Rossler Avenue and Dingens Street.

Officers said a 2010 Honda Accord, driven by a 22-year-old Buffalo woman, was traveling north on Rossler "at a high rate of speed" when it went through a red light at Dingens and collided with a 2016 Chevrolet Equinox driven by a 29-year-old Cheektowaga woman. Jacquelyn McClain, a passenger in the 2010 Honda, was ejected upon impact and died at the scene, police said.

Police did not release the names of the drivers nor provide their medical status.

The accident is being investigated by the Cheektowaga Police Accident Investigation Unit.
