Cheektowaga Police look for Murder suspect

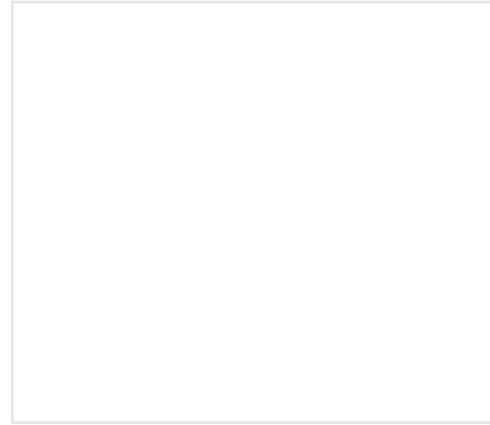

Husband wanted in connection with Raymond Avenue death

Cheektowaga Police say there is an active warrant out for Yuriy Bruks charging him with 2nd degree murder in his wife's death.

CHEEKTOWAGA, N.Y. — Cheektowaga Police say a suspicious death on Raymond Avenue Monday is now a homicide investigation.

Police were called to the scene, off William Street near the Thruway, shortly before 4 a.m. When they got there they found the body of a 34-year-old Tetiana Bruks.

Detectives say they are looking for the victim's husband, 34-year-old Yuriy Bruks, for questioning. A warrant has been issued charging him with second degree murder. Police say he is considered dangerous.

Crime Stoppers Buffalo has offered a $2,500 reward for any information leading to Bruks' arrest. Crime Stoppers can be contacted at (716) 867-6161 or through the free Crime Stoppers app. Anyone with information about Bruks' whereabouts is also asked to call the Cheektowaga Police Department at (716) 686-3505.
