Police say they are familiar with Karl Hand of the Racial Nationalist Party of America. Following this incident police reported Hand to the FBI.

According to police, The Erie County district attorney ruled that no crime was committed by

"If somebody is putting out a coupon for free pizza it's an annoyance, but we don't normally follow something like that," added Chief Zack. "This is clearly something different and has the potential for far more."

A judge could order Hand to either pay the littering summons or complete 10 hours of community service.

A court date has yet to be set.
